

DorMiya Vance

multi-media journalist.
currently, WABE's southside report.

About Me.

Emmy-winning audio journalist and digital media professional with experience in storytelling, news production, and multimedia content strategy. Passionate about mentoring and equipping students with practical communication and journalism skills. Committed to fostering creativity, accuracy, and ethical reporting in media education.

Professional Experience.

WABE 90.1 — Audio Journalist (Emmy Award-Winning) | June 2022 – Present.

- Produce original audio and digital news stories while representing emerging journalists in multimedia storytelling.

The Fayetteville Observer — News Intern | February 2022 – April 2022.

- Covered breaking and feature news across print and digital platforms, contributing to story development and audience engagement.

The Voice Student Newspaper — Editor-in-Chief | September 2019 – May 2022.

- Managed student reporters and editors, overseeing production, mentoring staff, and growing the paper's online presence.

based in Atlanta, Georgia.
wabe.org/dormiyavance
470-257-9915
dvance@wabe.org
vanced29@gmail.com

↓ all links.

GSU Master's Portfolio.

Education.

Georgia State University.

- CO 2024 | Master of Arts, Communications (Digital Media Strategies)

Fayetteville State University.

- CO 2022 | Bachelor of Arts, Communications and Media Studies

Goldsboro High School.

- co 2018 | High School Diploma, Valedictorian

Awards + Recognitions.

- 2025 Regional Emmy Award, Southeast Chapter, National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences.
- 2025 Atlanta Press Club "Use Of Sound" Award Recipient.
- 2025 Green Eyeshade Awards, 3rd Place in Audio Storytelling with Sound Design.
- 2025 Report For America Local News Awards, 3rd Place in Multimedia.

Technical Skills.

- canva.
- wordpress.
- adobe audition + audio engineering (editing, mixing, & production).
- social media management.
- multimedia storytelling.